

Founded 1995 by Jens Folmer Jepsen and Morten Rasmussen. One of the larger companies on the Danish mainland Jutland. Produces entertainment programmes for the two national broadcasters DR and TV 2, as well as documentaries, commercials, educational films, short fiction and music videos.

In addition to holding a strong position in TV entertainment, the company has released a number of well-received documentaries. "Den væsentlige tid"/"Essential Time" (Lone Alstrup, 2002) is a portrait of the composer Sofia Gubaidulina, who received Léonie Sonnings Music Award. Yet another musical icon, the Danish composer Carl Nielsen, is interpreted in "Lyset og mørket" (2003), directed by Karl Aage Rasmussen, himself a renowned composer and conductor.
