VARGENS TID

Hans Alfredson, Sweden, 1988
 90 min. | Feature

In forestial Southern Sweden in the 16th Century, Inge, a young nobleman, searches for Arild, his lost identical twin brother. In a story of mistaken identities, Inge is firmly believed to be Arild by a band of gipsies, one of them a girl who has already become Arild's great love. Inge is tempted to live the lie. With modern parallels of racial antagonisms, the drama takes an ominous turn.
