THE HEROIC QUEST OF THE VALIANT PRINCE IVANDOE

Christian Bøving-Andersen, Eva Lee Wallberg, Denmark, 2017

TV series | Children's films, Animation

The short series tells the story of Prince Ivandoe of the forest. One day he will succeed his father, the Mighty Stag, and rule as king. Ivandoe is blessed with a great deal of self-confidence and knows for a fact that he is the bravest, noblest and handsomest warrior-prince that ever drew breath! In reality he is a cute, round, clumsy young buck with limited physical ability. To toughen him up and prepare him for his destiny, Ivandoe's parents send him on an epic quest. He must travel the breadth of the kingdom to Eagle Mountain and return with the magical Golden Feather from the fearsome Eagle King. Only then will he have proven himself fit to rule the kingdom. Accompanying Ivandoe is Bert, the prince's dedicated Squire and his best (and only) friend. Together they set off on the adventure of a lifetime, journeying through the mystical Gnome Forest, the dark Troll Woods and the Lake of Mystery.
