

THE LITTLE VAMPIRE

EN | DA

Karsten Kiilerich, Richard Claus, Netherlands, 2017

82 min. | Feature | Family films

Rudolph Sackville-Bagge is about to celebrate his 13th birthday for the 300th time. He's a handsome teen; pale like he's never seen the sun. It's one of the prices of being a vampire; like being 13-years old for centuries. Rudolph's Vampire parents, Freda and Frederick, are strict and old-school. Rudolph, Anna, his beautiful 12-year old sister and Gregory, his lethally cool older brother, are all rebelling against their parents. For Rudolph and Anna the rebellion is a simple thirst for adventure, Gregory is thirsting for more. He thinks his father is a coward, but the truth is Frederick is simply trying to save his family from the notorious vampire hunter, Rookery, and his young apprentice Maney.
