

Ole Askman, Denmark, 1994

6 min. | DK/Documentary | Portrait films

Harry Hviid Jensen, named Barbut, is a hairdresser with regular routines and steady rhythms. In front of his small shop in Vesterbrogade in the middle of Copenhagen a whole busy world is daily rushing along. But Barbut minds his own business as he has done for many years. He does the day's work on his only customer with virtuosity. Accompanied by Rossini's »The Barber of Sevilla«. BARBUT is a poetic, musical image of days soon gone by.
