Voja Miladinovic, Denmark, 1974

81 min. | DK/Feature

A story, based on real events, about a Yugoslav guest worker who does not quite make it in a country of fiercer stress, but also of looser morals than anything he had known at home. Fired from his job for an innocuous offense, he returns to Yugoslavia, broke but too proud to admit defeat. He steals just to appear prosperous, and petty crimes leads to larger ones, one day including murder.
