SKÆBNEMØDET

Jacob Kragelund, Denmark, 2018
40 min. | Series (documentary)

On the 11th of November 2010 the 40-year old businessman and con artist Henrik Haugberg Madsen disappears without a trace. Two men, Bo Madsen and Claus Stokholm Larsen, are sentenced for murder although the police never managed to find a body. Have the police and the justice system made serious mistakes? Is Henrik dead or does he hide somewhere abroad? Have two innocents been convicted of a murder that has never been committed?

This case is unique in the Danish history of law. In the new true-crime documentary series Journalist Jacob Kragelund is searching for answers through 6 thrilling chapters. In his research he finds vital evidence that the police did not manage to find in their investigation. The new evidence reveals the truth of the disappearance of Henrik Haugberg Madsen.
