Clara is at the cinema to watch a romantic classic by herself. In the hall she meets Christian who wants her attention. Clara is at first not interested in Christian but gets charmed by his teasing. Suddenly she finds herself in a popcorn fight while the movie is playing at the canvas. Christian falls between some rows of chairs, and as Clara helps him up the two stands close together. Just before their lips are about to meet Christian watches the end of the film, where the man and woman gets married, and he storms out of the cinema. Clares is alone in the cinema and eats her popcorn while the hero and heroine kisses at the canvas.
