

William Reynish, Denmark, 2017
20 min. | DK/Short fiction | Animation

The 12-year-old girl Darya was once evacuated from a nuclear disaster, and now returns to her hometown to look for her father. When she arrives, everything has changed. The town is grown over by amazing nature, and wild animals have moved in. Darya travels down memory lane, and in the overwhelming town she succeeds in finding her father. However, when she finds him, he is completely changed and this forces Darya to leave the past behind her and try to adapt to a new world.
