ALFA

Milad Avaz, Denmark, 2020
320 min. | TV series

When the stockbroker Adam seeks out his dead father's roots in the biker environment, to find the reason for his anxiety neuroses, he is captivated by the fast life. It doesn't take long before Adam's structural life is mixed with ambitions, in desperation for power and fast recognition in the drug market, where his cousin Simon has already taken roots. With a goal of forming a new leading drug cartel they are up against gangs, bikers, police, politicians and Adam's big brother Jakob. Jakob, who always looked Adam, now functions as guardian of society as a police officer. We meet Jakob when he is recruited to the anti-drug division where he is granted the possibility of making a difference.
