

Film

LILA

EN | DA

Maj-Britt La Cour, Denmark, 2018
 27 min. | DK/Short fiction

Lillian (65) is sick with incurable cancer and angry at the world. She keeps pushing her only daughter and grandchild away, so she can be left alone to die. But life outside keeps interrupting, and one day Lillian finds herself in the arms of the charming Henning, who can dance and makes life feel like a breeze. A wish to live starts to grow, as Lillian's cancer cells continuous to spread. But the escape from reality will not be easy.

Basic information

Credits

|                         |                                                                     |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Original title          | Lila                                                                |
| Danish title            | Lila                                                                |
| Director                | Maj-Britt La Cour                                                   |
| Screenplay              | Signe Vaupel, Maj-Britt La Cour                                     |
| Producer                | Michelle Brøndum                                                    |
| Director of Photography | Signe Tora Munk Bencke                                              |
| Editor                  | Christoffer Sandau Schuricht                                        |
| Sound                   | Anders Norddal Jendresen, Anders Norddal Jendresen                  |
| Composer                | Anders Norddal Jendresen                                            |
| Production designer     | Elisabeth Jerichau Nissen, Pil Bachmann                             |
| Appearance              | Solbjørg Højfeldt, Tommy Kenter, Signe Vaupel, Ernesto Piga Carbone |
| Production country      | Denmark                                                             |

DOWNLOAD PDF

PRINT