ANGELS ARE MADE OF LIGHT

James Longley, United States, 2019

29 min. | Series (documentary)

In episode 4 Afghanistan's war-torn past and the impact of the conflicts on society and its population is established. At the Daqiqi Balkhi school, a cleaning lady tells her story and talks about the fear of the upcoming election. Election demonstrations are being held in Kabul. Simultaneously, we follow the brothers Sohrab and Yaldash, who are working hard for their family. However, both describe a heartfelt dream of getting an education and living in a land of peace.
