DENGANG DANMARK LUKKEDE NED

Emil Nørgaard Munk, Denmark, 2020
 30 min. | DK/Documentary

Documentary short about Danish Children during the COVID-19 Pandemic. Filmed by the kids themselves. The film depicts how Danish children are put in a unique situation and how they handle the crisis in different ways. Some dive into creating music videos, stop motion film, animations. Others are vulnerable and have to take extra good care. Part of the kids are separated from their grandparents and the separation is hard. Part of the kids finally have time to be with their parents who normally is always at work. Across individual stories, the film depicts a shared tale of home schooling, boredom, rainbows and trampoline jumping in a very special time where Denmark is shut down.
