ELVES' HILL

Jørgen Lund, Denmark, 1910

22 min. | DK/Feature | Drama, Historical drama, Adaptions | Silent films

Two infants are swapped at birth. Noble-born Elisabeth Munk is found on Elverhøjen (Elves' Hill) and is brought up as Agnete, a peasant girl, whom all the locals believe to be an elf-maiden. She meets a noble knight, Sir Ebbesen, and the pair fall in love. But Sir Ebbesen is expected to marry a woman of his own noble standing – none other than the girl erroneously brought up as Elisabeth Munk. Suspecting that there is something fishy about the entire affair, King Christian IV sets out for Elves' Hill to discover the truth of the matter.
