

DID SOMEBODY LAUGH?

EN | DA

Henning Carlsen, Denmark, 1978

102 min. | DK/Feature

The late 1930s. A young unemployed, unskilled worker walks through the streets of Copenhagen, sustaining himself partly on the dole and free soup-kitchen meals and partly on day-dreams. He spends time at a cemetery studying headstone inscriptions. Mild-mannered and of poetic bent, he understands little of an intellectual friend's advice and shies away from the love of a woman who shares her bed with him.

Basic information

Credits

Festivals & awards

Materials

Original title	Hør, var der ikke en som lo?
Danish title	Hør, var der ikke en som lo?
Director	Henning Carlsen
Screenplay	Henning Carlsen
Based on	Roman af Eigil Jensen (1940).
Director of Photography	Henning Kristiansen
Editor	Henning Carlsen
Sound	Jan Juhler , Per Meinertsen
Composer	Bedrich Smetana , Krzysztof Komeda
Production designer	Peter Høimark
Appearances	Jesper Christensen , Kirsten Olesen , Jens Okking , Karl Stegger
Production country	Denmark
Production company	Dagmar Filmproduktion
Domestic distribution	Warner & Constantin
Technical info	35 mm, Widescreen, color, Sound
Danish theatrical release	15.09.1978
Cinemas	Dagmar, Roskilde, Odense, Esbjerg, Vejle, Århus, Aalborg, Rialto 2
TV release	26.05.1991
Find more	Niels Jensen: Hør, var der ikke en, som lo? Kosmorama 139/1978 . Mogens Kløvedal: Interview med med Henning Carlsen. Tusind Øjne 19/1978 .
Danish rating	Allowed for all

 PRINT

 DOWNLOAD PDF