THE AIRSHIP 'HANSA' IN COPENHAGEN

Denmark, 1912
4 min. | Non-fiction footage

The 148 meter long zeppelin arrived on 19 September 1912. Count Zeppelin himself was one of the passengers. Also Alfred Nervø (1879-1921), who in 1910 had been the first to fly over Copenhagen, was on board. The Zeppelin was en route from Hamburg to Malmoe in Sweden. During World War I 'Hansa' was transferred to military service. 'Hansa' was scrapped in 1916.
