

THE SEASIDE HOTEL

EN | DA

Ubekendt, Denmark, 1915

8 min. | DK/Feature | Farce, Comedy | Silent films

When Gregoire and Lola go on a beach holiday to the idyllic Skagen, they don't know yet that the trip will be the end of their marriage. Gregoire may be wealthy, but he is many years older and several pounds heavier than his young wife, who's beauty makes all the male holiday guests turn their necks. Baron Plessen falls in love with Lola, and she quickly gets fond of the idea of replacing her corpulent husband with a handsome nobleman. Together, they plan to push Gregoire out of the picture.

The preserved material is a fragment.

Basic information

Credits

Festivals & awards

Materials

Original title	Badehotellet
Danish title	Badehotellet
Director	Ubekendt
Screenplay	Harriet Bloch
Director of Photography	Poul Eibye
Appearances	Mitzi Mathé , William Bewer , Edith Buemann Psilander , Einar Zangenberg
Production country	Denmark
Production company	Kinografen
Domestic distribution	Kinografen
Technical info	1240 meter, 35 mm, Normal, Black/white, Silent
Danish theatrical release	01.01.1915
Cinemas	Kinografen

 PRINT

 DOWNLOAD PDF