KRIGERNES BØRN

Ernst Johansen, Denmark, 1979
89 min. | DK/Feature | Children's films

Five teenagers escape from a brutal warrior state to a neighboring island nation where freedom and respect for human values are reputed to reign. At first, the children are welcomed with open arms and given shelter and work, but it soon turns out that exploitation and evil are as rife here as back home. Instead of running off again, the children settle down to work for a better world in the here and now.
