THE BALLET DANCER

August Blom, Denmark, 1911
37 min. | DK/Feature | Silent films

Ballet dancer Camille dreams of becoming an actress, and her wish comes true when she meets the young screenwriter Jean. Soon, her career is well underway, and Camille’s name is on everyone's lips. She even wins her mentor’s heart. However, Jean turns out to have multiple involvements, and so a fatal game of entanglements takes its beginning.
