LOVE AND MONEY

August Blom, Denmark, 1911

32 min. | DK/Feature | Melodrama | Silent films

Wild love drives a woman to steal money from her own father. It is the lodging lieutenant Von Bremer, who has charmed her with empty words. Von Bremer leaves with the money, while the father throws the woman out. Twenty-two years later, a young man seeks accommodation with Von Bremer and his wife. Von Bremer suddenly discovers cracks in his happy marriage. Will he discover in time that it's his nemesis that has caught up with him after all these years?
