

THE JUNGLE WAR IN KAMPUCHEA

EN | DA

Peter Bischoff, Denmark, 1981

40 min. | DK/Documentary

A visit to the Khmer Rouge partisans. Kampuchea in south-east Asia has become known for the Pol Pot regime from 1975 to 78, for the occupation of the country by Vietnam in 1979, and for the widespread famine. This film was made in 1981 and reports on the military situation and on civil life behind the lines. Kmer Rouge politicians also offer their interpretations of what happened.

Basic information

Credits

Festivals & awards

Original title	Kampuchéas junglekrig - Besøg hos Khmer rouge partisanerne
Danish title	Kampuchéas junglekrig - Besøg hos Khmer rouge partisanerne
Keywords	Political circumstances, Military, Khmer Rouge, Kampuchea, 1980-1989
Director	Peter Bischoff
Director of Photography	Søren Rud
Editor	Peter Bischoff , Debbie Jensen
Sound	Lars Becker-Larsen
Production country	Denmark
Production company	Det Danske Filmværksted

 PRINT

 DOWNLOAD PDF