

Jytte Rex, Denmark, 1998

54 min. | DK/Documentary | Portrait films

Inger Christensen fills an important part in both Danish and European literature, and several of her collections of poems have been translated. In Jytte Rex's portrait film we meet Inger Christensen in her apartment on Østerbro in Copenhagen, where she talks about her life and work. In the film Inger Christensen reads aloud from her most significant work: "Det" (1969), "Det maledede værelse" (1976), "Alfabet" (1981) og "Sommerfugledalen" (1991).
