I WONDER WHO'S KISSING YOU NOW?

Henning Carlsen, Denmark, 1998

98 min. | DK/Feature

Sam has almost all he wants - a lovely wife, a big house, and a pretty exciting job as a film editor. His Swedish wife, Laura is an adorable, sensible teacher, charming, and a real heart-throb. The film is a twitchy comedy about a normal man driven to the verge of insanity by jealousy. Is it a delusion - or is it well-founded? Sam is in nerve-wracking doubt. As the evidence mounts up, Laura continues to smile her innocent smile. Sweet enough to drive any man out of his mind. Character comedian Tommy Kenter dominates the film with his touching, affectionate portrait of a neurotic in the iron grip of jealousy. Persistently and inventively he tries to get to the bottom of the feminine mystique.
