ANGEL OF THE NIGHT

Claus Bohm, Denmark, 1981

34 min. | DK/Documentary | Portrait films

About a generation of young artists and some of the thoughts they entertain on life and the future. The setting of the film is the night and the city of Copenhagen. At night we are away from the visible, illuminated surroundings and alone with ourselves and the essentials of life. The night is full of secrets and magic. The people of the film are trying to arrive at self-knowledge.
