THE CABLE CLUB

Søren Fauli, Denmark, 1999

53 min. | DK/Short fiction

The stairway is full of noises. It's prime time and the residents keep to themselves and their TV-sets. When the landlord decides to renovate the property and removes all their little aerials, silence falls except for the old lady in the top flat who has an indoor aerial. Everybody assembles here to see the repeat of a popular soap, and suddenly they realise what they have been missing all along: fellowship and shared goals. They get together to fight for their cable club. Now they will be really good neighbours.
