

Farrokh Majidi, Denmark, 1991

55 min. | DK/Short fiction

The Iranian woman Raha is forced to give up her work as an actress and flee her country after the Islamic takeover. During the escape, she gets separated from her daughter and husband who are being held back in Iran. The film is about the breaking of barriers and the struggle for freedom.

Basic informationCredits*Festivals & awards*Materials

Original title	Raha
Danish title	Raha
Keywords	Islamism, Women, Iran
Director	Farrokh Majidi
Screenplay	Farrokh Majidi, Moddabber Kyan
Director of Photography	Farrokh Majidi
Editor	Elisabeth Colding
Sound	Ralf Jacobsen, Steen Kylløbæk Andersen
Composer	Gunner Møller Pedersen
Production designer	Mallek J. Khazaii
Appearances	Shohre Aghdashlu, Nasrin Ghasemzadeh, Ali Esfahani, Hassan Jalili
Production country	Denmark
Production companies	Det Danske Filmværksted
Domestic distribution	Statens Filmcentral
Technical info	16 mm, Normal, color
Danish theatrical release	20.09.1991
Cinemas	Odense, Vester Vov Vov
TV release	10.02.1992, TV 2
Danish rating	Children under 16 not admitted

Your experience at dfi.dk will be enhanced if you allow cookies - Read more

ACCEPT