

Søren Fauli, Denmark, 1996

22 min. | DK/Short fiction

Director Søren Fauli willingly exhibits and investigates his own weaknesses. With a healthy and curious self-centeredness he recognizes that he's simply an uninhibited supermaterialist. He has a gigantic overconsumption of and a continuous addiction for the latest technology. And one day he gets the fantastic opportunity to carry out as much as he can from an electronic store in three minutes. But how?
