

CHERRY BLOSSOM BALLAD

EN | DA

Irene Werner Stage, Denmark, 1990

96 min. | DK/Feature

A middle-aged woman lives alone with her dreams in her childhood home. Dreams have become her foremost reality. It seems that once, during World War 2, she married a man picked out for her by her Nazi father and spurned the nice German officer who wooed her. A young man on an official errand visits the house. His reality and her dreams merge in ways that reopen old wounds, making her lash out furiously.
