SPRING TIDE

Eddie Thomas Petersen, Denmark, 1990
 104 min. | DK/Feature | Youth films

Love-among-the-young melodrama with a different beat, actually that of a jazz trombone played on a faraway beach by a girl while the North Sea tide rises. Well, that is how it all ends when young Franco, a slum kid, is taken into a family of local folks. He falls in love with the daughter, makes her pregnant and is kicked out. A happy ending seems unlikely. However, there's that trombone beat!
