TRÆKFUGLE

Vibeke Muasya, Denmark, 2001

39 min. | DK/Short fiction

Three very different elderly women escape from the deadly boredom of their rest home; they are inspired by Søren Kierkegaard's statement: "To dare means losing your footing for a while; not to dare means losing yourself forever". For two days and nights they experience the sensuality and beauty of life on a Greek holiday island but soon their bliss is interrupted.
