THE INVISIBLE MAN CHILD

Flemming Quist Møller, Anders Sørensen, Denmark, 1982

17 min. | DK/Short fiction | Animation

Using a humorous, revue-like style, this unconventional film addresses children and young people with the aim of telling them about alcohol and its abuse. Two entertainers present the »secret baby« that live inside all of us and tempts us to drink too much. The film suggests that the important thing is to learn to control this »secret baby«. Brief information is also given about the effects of alcohol on the body.
