CHILDREN OF THE STAGE

Bjørn Bjørnson, Denmark, 1913

DK/Feature | Drama, Melodrama | Silent films

A ménage à trois in the theatre: the young, celebrated actress Leonie is happily married to her much older colleague Walther. But their idyllic life is shattered when Leonie starts an affair with the young, handsome Charles, even though he has supposedly given his heart to Dora. Jealousy seethes in Walther when he hears about his wife's unfaithfulness, while Dora becomes enflamed with a furious lust for vengeance that has fatal consequences.
