A PIANO TALE

Benjamin Holmsteen, Denmark, 2003
9 min. | DK/Short fiction | Music films

A lovely girl and a piano meet. She is nervous, but curious about the other creature - the piano. And carefully like a deer she approaches the piano. The girl and the piano slowly and carefully get to know one another.
But suddenly a naughty boy intrudes! A conflict between a classical pianist and a jazz pianist... A meeting between two extremes... A meeting between two people, whom at first glance may seem as great individuals and perhaps have little in common, but if they try to communicate and understand each other, something beautiful can be born from their meeting.
Original music by Tori Amos and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.
