Mads Tobias Olsen, Denmark, 1997

12 min. | DK/Short fiction

Irene and Verner have been dead and buried for many years, but their love lives on with such intensity that once a year, on the anniversary of their wedding night, they can leave the graves and dance the night away in each others arms...if they can otherwise still hold one another. A romantic zombie musical comedy about the wretched of Earth, which posits that Love is stronger than Death.
