

Film

LINK

EN | DA

Richard Franklin, United Kingdom, 1985
 103 min. | Feature

Basic information

Credits

|                           |                                                               |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| Original title            | Link                                                          |
| Danish title              | Abernes nat                                                   |
| Director                  | Richard Franklin                                              |
| Screenplay                | Everett De Roche                                              |
| Based on                  | Fortælling af Everett De Roche, Lee Zlotoff, Tom Ackerman     |
| Director of Photography   | Mike Molloy                                                   |
| Editor                    | Andrew London                                                 |
| Sound                     | Ken Hall, Derek Trigg, David Stephenson, John Hayward         |
| Composer                  | Jerry Goldsmith                                               |
| Production designer       | Norman Garwood, Keith Pain, Maggie Gray                       |
| Appearance                | Elisabeth Shue, Terence Stamp, Steven Pinner, Richard Garnett |
| Production country        | United Kingdom                                                |
| Domestic distribution     | Nordisk Film                                                  |
| Technical info            | Technicolor                                                   |
| Danish theatrical release | 20.03.1987                                                    |

|                                               |                     |
|-----------------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Cinemas                                       | Cinema 1-8, BioTrio |
| TV release                                    | 24.05.1991, DR      |
| 📄 DOWNLOAD PDF 🖨️ PRINT |                     |
|                                               |                     |