32 min. | DK/Documentary | Children's films

A story about two boys from the Paro valley in Bhutan in Himalaya. They have just started school, but the older of the boys finds it difficult to keep up. He thinks the letters in the reading book are so small, and he also finds it difficult to hit the target when the two of them go out with their bow and arrows. Apart from the story the film also tells children about the way other children live in very different conditions and circumstances.
