

Malene Choi Jensen, Denmark, 2007

24 min. | DK/Experimental

In a hypnotic movement Voice over Voice leads us into a universe, where sounds of the city and disturbing experiences provoke our consciousness. The voices' intimate confessions of longing and fear of having and losing create painful connections between themselves, the viewer, and the city. The film generates a trembling sense of the ambiguous nature of man and city, somewhere between beauty and brutality.
