A NICKLE

Amel Dzemidzc, Denmark, 2004
8 min. | DK/Short fiction

A man walks into a renovated apartment, the one he lived in as a child. He finds a metal box in a secret hidingplace, containing toys. While looking at the toys, he hears sounds from the open window. He looks trough the window and remembers his childhood. He sees three children: a boy with a tennis ball, a skaterboy and a girl playing in the backyard.
