

Marius Holst, Norway, 2007

107 min. | Feature

Mirush leaves Kosovo hoping to find his father in Norway, who abandoned the family when Mirush was very young. Now the father runs a restaurant in Oslo, but he is also in deep debt to the Albanian Mafia. Mirush starts to work in his fathers restaurant without letting him know that he is his son. Gradually they learn to know each other, but what Mirush discovers about his father is not something he is prepared to take. He is forced to make choices that have large consequences, for both of them.

Basic informationCredits*Festivals & awards*Materials

Original title	Blodsbånd
Danish title	Blodsbånd
Other titles	Mirush
Director	Marius Holst
Screenplay	Harald Rosenløw Eeg , Lars Gudmestad
Producer	Gudny Hummelvoll
Director of Photography	John Andreas Andersen
Editor	Guido Notari
Composer	Franco Piersanti
Production designer	Billy Johanson , Ingeborg Kvamme
Casting	Ellen Michelsen , Ljupcho Todorovski
Appearances	Enrico Lo Verso , Nazif Muarremi , Glenn Andre Kaada , Ramadan Huseini
Production country	Norway, Denmark
Production companies	Spillefilmskompagniet 4 1/2 , Nimbus Film
Domestic distribution	Sunrise Film Distribution
Technical info	2,35:1 Scope, Dolby, SRD
Danish theatrical release	03.10.2008
Cinemas	Vester Vov Vov, Gloria, Øst for Paradis (Århus)
DFI subsidy	Konsulentstøtte

Your experience at dfi.dk will be enhanced if you allow cookies - Read more

ACCEPT