KLARA - THOUGHTS FROM THE TAIGA

Ida Grøn, Denmark, 2004
 DK/Documentary

Klara looks back on her 53 years long life in the woods of Siberia, the Taiga. She belongs to the Evenk people, who originally lived a nomad life in the Tiga as hunter-gathers. Today most Evenks live in aged hunting collectives from the communistic rule or take the risk to move to the city. Klara lives in a hunting collective with her two unmarried adult sons.
