PERSONAL ADD

Emma Balcázar, Denmark, 2002
 DK/Short fiction

Personal Add is a magic-realistic story about a woman who dreams about a better life. Laila is a Latin-American immigrant, who lives alone in Denmark with her ten years old son Philip. Laila's life is very empty. She works too hard, she does not have friends, she is very lonely and she needs desperately to find love. One day she decides to put a personal add in a local newspaper. Laila receives a lot of replies, and she starts dreaming about the prince to come. Among the replies there is one man, who is everything Laila ever wanted. He is intelligent, nice, good looking and is wealthy, or at least that's what he says. The question is if all that is true.
