Karina Strand, Denmark, 2000

DK/Documentary

A film about the world's longest mountain bike race, across Australia's desert. The race, "Crocodile Trophy", last 14 days, where 52 competitors ride 2000 km through very rough terrain. The riders' mental and physical abilities are severely tried, as the race is much more than simply treading the pedals. The film shows 4 Danes' attempt at surviving the race and the fatigue in Australia's wilderness.
