Sidse Stausholm, Denmark, 2009

40 min. | DK/Documentary

A film about three girls who've never had a friend at school. They've been bullied and ignored for years and felt left out and lonely. Yet they are strong girls with a drive to change. Now they're beginning to understand that maybe it's not all their fault. They meet on the internet where they each create an avatar, their online identity. They support each other through their journey of figuring out who they are, who they want to be and how to get there.
