Henry has been acting the human chameleon all his life - a pale reflection of other people's expectations. One day Henry's best friend, Jon, talks him into opening a restaurant in Spain. Before leaving, Henry is caught up in a maelstrom of bizarre events. In order to get control over his life Henry needs to stop being a pale copy and transform himself into the sparkling original he really is. A journey, which requires both a passport and a trip into his own twisted mind - a journey which lays bare the path to love in the most unexpected places.

Writer-director duo Tublén and Brøndsted's feature film debut.
