TWIN BROTHERS - 53 SCENES FROM A CHILDHOOD

Axel Danielson, Sweden, 2011

80 min. | Documentary

Gustav and Oskar are twins, yet about as different as two people can be. Fifty-three separate scenes feature the brothers as they grow up between the ages of nine to nineteen. "Twin Brothers" is a film about leaving childhood behind. About the secrecy, openheartedness and pain that childhood involves, along with its many wonders. Life is not just a story. It's a collection of memorable moments and events.
