MIN DAL - TILBAGE TIL LIMFJORDEN

Jacob Jørgensen, Henrik Lundø, Denmark, 2011

49 min. | DK/Documentary | Portrait films

In the summer of 2008 Hans Edvard Nørregård-Nielsen travelled with the schooner Mira through the Danish Limfjord from Thyborøn in west to Hals in east. The purpose of the trip was to collect material for a book about the inlet. A sort of declaration of love to the Limfjord. In the film we sail through the inlet, go ashore where it is necessary, look at important places and hear about the poets of the Limfjord. Hans Edvard Nørregård-Nielsen talks about the importance of The Limfjord as a literary and artistic hearth. Along the journey he talks with his travelling companion, the photographer Kirsten Klein, about the Limfjord as a motive and the Limfjord before and now.
