I AM BREATHING

Emma Davie, Morag McKinnon, Denmark, 2013

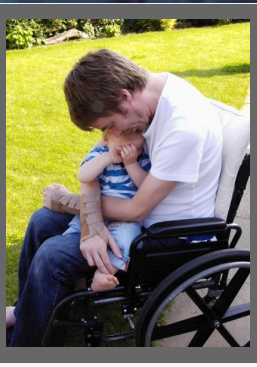

73 min. | DK/Documentary

»Breathing« is an intimate documentary about life, death, love and the hope provided by cutting edge genetic science. It is also a film about how to be a good father ¿ when you're no longer there. An ambitious and moving film which tells the story of Neil Platt, a bright, energetic Yorkshireman who developed Motor Neurone Disease (ALS) and was driven to speak from a paralysed limbo land between life and death.
