

BOCK IN THE VICARAGE

EN | DA

Julia Woxberg, Denmark, 2012

27 min. | DK/Documentary

From a young Swedish girl's perspective, we get to meet a renowned Danish Priest in the Nørrebro district of Copenhagen, who - with little fear of the dark and wild sides of life - has both been on the barricades for new viewpoints as well as kept old traditions alive. He has created a colourful world in his vicarage, where people can express themselves freely; and his own mind is often occupied with the deeper aspects of life - especially now, when the end of an epoch is drawing near ...

Basic information

Credits

Festivals & awards

Original title	Bock i Præstegården
Danish title	Bock i Præstegården
Other titles	Bock in the vicarage
Keywords	Christianity, Priests, Bock, Erik, Nørrebro
Director	Julia Woxberg
Screenplay	Julia Woxberg
Director of Photography	Martin Lönborg , Sebastian Spjuth Danneborn , Martin Køhler Jørgensen , Sebastian Sheild
Editor	Helene Nymann
Sound	Mikkel Munk Appel
Appearances	Erik Bock
Production country	Denmark
Dialogue language	Danish, Swedish
Production companies	Filmværkstedet / DFI
Technical info	color, Dolby SR

Your experience at dfi.dk will be enhanced if you allow cookies - Read more

ACCEPT