FELIX

Erik Clausen, Denmark, 1982
92 min. | DK/Feature

To fight off her loneliness, a widow advertises her cat Felix as lost and offers a cash reward. She never had a cat, but the ad brings people around, among them a widower who plays at being private detective. So two lonely souls unite. Complications arise, however, when the "detective" is confronted with non-imaginary racketeers, and when the widow is threatened with commitment to an institution.
