

CAMILLE. A LIFE, AN APPARTEMENT

EN | DA

Anne Sophie Bosc, Denmark, 2012

28 min. | DK/Documentary

Camille, a parisian Algerian-Jewish woman age 94, is forced to move out of what has been her home for the past 80 years. She fears that she will relive the sufferings that she experienced, when she fled during the war. It is also about a friendship between an old strong lady and a young woman, her neighbour and close friend, in her everyday life.

Basic information

Credits

Festivals & awards

Original title	Camille - et liv, en lejlighed
Danish title	Camille - et liv, en lejlighed
Other titles	Camille. A life, an appartement
Keywords	Old age, Friendship
Director	Anne Sophie Bosc
Director of Photography	Anne Sophie Bosc
Editor	Maria Tjørnelunde
Sound	Anne Sophie Bosc
Composer	Kristian Selin Eidnes Andersen
Production country	Denmark
Dialogue language	French
Production companies	Filmværkstedet / DFI
Technical info	16:9, color, Dolby SR

Your experience at dfi.dk will be enhanced if you allow cookies - Read more

ACCEPT